

Abu Saeed Khan

Abu Saeed Khan is a Strategic Analyst in Ericsson (South East Asia) at Kuala Lumpur. He has been also a Senior Policy Fellow in LIRNEasia since the inception of this Colombo-based Regulatory and Policy research outfit in 2004.

Abu worked as a Research Analyst with EMC World Cellular Database (Now owned by Informa). He analyzed the mobile markets of Bangladesh, Nepal and Pakistan. Prior to that he worked in Occidental Oil and Gas as Contracts Administrator. He was a faculty in regional regulatory training courses offered by New Delhi-based The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) between 2001 and 2004.

Abu had been a freelance journalist on telecoms and IT and he was the Technology Editor of bdnews24.com in Bangladesh. He has a BA in Bengali language and literature.