

Tenzin Norbhu

Tenzin Norbhu, is a Senior ICT Policy Specialist.

She joined the World Bank in 2000 and is the regional coordinator in South Asia Team for the Global ICT policy group. She currently works on ICT and telecommunications projects in Asia. Her areas of expertise include ICT for development; telecommunications sector reform, rural telecommunications access, radio spectrum management, eGovernment and IT industry development. Before joining the Bank, was the head of the Bhutan Telecommunications Regulatory Authority.