

Ashutosh Chadha

Director, Corporate Affairs Group, Intel South Asia

Ashutosh is currently responsible for the Education, CSR and Environment Mandates for South Asia. Additionally he drives key new strategic initiatives at Intel spanning Digital inclusion and Entrepreneurship for the Asia Pacific region. In his role, he works closely with key audiences in the Government, Academia, Industry and the Community to align and manage initiatives to support Intel's long term agenda in South Asia.

Ashutosh has been with Intel for 6 years and prior to this role was Director, Strategic Education Initiatives, Intel Asia Pacific. He was responsible for the strategic support for the implementation of Intel Education Programs across 14 Countries in the APAC region as well as working closely with multilateral bodies across the Asia Pacific to support the development of appropriate policies and processes for Educational Transformation.

In his career spanning over 20 years, Ashutosh has worked at Microsoft Corporation, Shell India Pvt Ltd, NIIT and the National Dairy Development Board. He has had extensive experience in New Business Development, Channel Management, Strategic Planning and Policy Advocacy as well as Sales and Marketing.

Ashutosh has a Bachelor's degree in Biology from DAV College, Chandigarh and a Master's Degree from Institute of Rural Management, Anand.

#####