

Miguel Raimilla
Executive Director- Telecentre.org Foundation

Miguel Raimilla, has over 18 years of experience as a founding member of various Multinational/multicultural initiatives linked with social enterprises, social development and youth throughout Latin America, Asia, Europe and the United States. Consultant and NGO board member in the themes of applied technologies, the environment, and community development. Facilitator of new funding partnerships with multilateral organizations; Developer of Telecentre models, training content, and methodologies; Leader in the ICT4D concept for under-served and rural communities worldwide, and currently serve as Executive Director of Telecentre.org Foundation.