

Mohammad Mahdee-uz Zaman

Director, Cloud Platform Services

Mohammad Mahdee-uz Zaman is currently working for Virtustream as a Director of Cloud Platform Services for designing, consulting, and execution of IT strategy. His company provides a vast array of professional and operational services such as IT Infrastructure-as-a-Service, modern data centers in prime locations, fully managed application solutions, and a portfolio of security tools. Mohammad has been in the Information Technology field for over 20 years with an expanse of knowledge in the areas of designing, managing and optimizing technologies related to cloud computing, data center, LAN and WAN, voice and VOIP, infrastructure, storage, and virtualization.

Mr. Zaman has been a distinguished leader in the cloud computing arena with significant focus on governance, regulations, and compliance with overall security posture for global enterprises. He has a number of articles and white papers related to cloud computing, security, IT governance committee and emergency response team for business continuity and disaster recovery.

Mr. Zaman has been critical to solution oriented dynamic organization and provided numerous training and speech in multiple seminars ranging from next generation network, infrastructure, governance, and standards. He has been assisting organizations to build and sustain dynamic environment with structured control and flexibility to adapt to the ever-changing environment of the global economics.

Mr. Zaman has both an MBA in Global Technology Management and a BS in Accounting and Computer Information Systems from American Intercontinental University and Baruch College, respectively. During his tenure, he has also earned many certificates, including CISSP, ITIL, COBIT, FRAAP, MCSE, CCNA, CCDA, among others.